About the Department

The Department of Mathematics established in 1993, imparts high quality education to the students. The department regularly updates to keep up with the growing demands and the changing trends in mathematical sciences. The faculty members are recognized as supervisors for guiding Ph.D scholars of Anna University.

About the conference

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CHEMICAL GRAPH, FLUID DYNAMICS AND QUEUEING THEORY IN SCIENCE, ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY" (NCAMSET – 2018) aims to provide opportunity to share innovative ideas and concepts among the researchers, academicians and students.

The topics include

- ❖ Chemical Graph and its applications
- ❖ Fluid Dynamics and its applications
- ❖ Queueing Theory and its applications

Key note lectures will be delivered by experts from IIT, NIT, Anna University, and reputed industries.
