Tech conference at Sriram

The department of computer science and engineering of Sriram Engineering College, organised the international conference on cutting edge technologies in computing and communications, recently. Students from various colleges participated and presented their papers in mobile computing, cloud computing, IoT, big data analytics, etc. Out of 103 papers, 67 were shortlisted for presentation. B Suresh Kamath, MD, Patterns Software Design Institute, was the chief guest and CR Mutukrishnan, former deputy director, IIT Madras, was the guest of honour.